THEATRICAL.

"Hooligan in New York" is announced for Monday night, Oct. 9th at the opera house. An advance notice says:

It is a comedy drama, the scenes of which are laid in the metropolis. It portrays every phase of life in Gotham from the dwellers in the mansions of Riverside Drive to the denizens of the squalid slums of the Ghetto. The entire production is a feast for the eye from a scenic standpoint, and a vein of delightful comedy interspersed with many pleasing specialties makes a contrast to the darker side of the picture.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, Divine Providence in its infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from her earthly abode to a higher sphere all that was mortal of Mrs. Sam Lucas; Therefore be it

Resolved, That the Congregation Beth Israel has lost a most worthy and valuable member, whose presence and influence will be sadly missed, and whose loss to the congregation is irreparable.

Second, That it is a melancholy pleasure to dwell upon the virtues, accomplishments, and lovable traits of her mind and heart.

Third, That all who came in contact with her religiously or socially will keenly feel the loss of one whose character, generosity, and good deeds, have built for her a standard worthy of emulation.

Fourth, That in her death she leaves a sorrowing and grief-stricken husband to mourn her loss. That the hopes and promises of the mother with her tender caresses and mother's love are a sad bereavement to her two little ones.

That to her brothers and sisters a most beautiful nature whose sympathetic words, kindly caresses, and lovable traits will never be replaced. To her other relatives, also friends, a light has been extinguished in its zenith, whose brightness has given pleasure, hope, and cheer. And furthermore be it

Resolved, That a copy be published in each of the daily papers and spread upon the minutes of our worthy organization, and a copy of these resolutions be sent to the sorrowing family

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

Boston, Mass., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.

After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged wearily along instead. My appetite failed me and I lost weight and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. The menstrual flow became more and more profuse and I was unfit to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took enough medicine to kill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well.

I am happy to give you this endorsement. Beth Ricker
President, Back Bay Woman's Club.

Why don't you try for the same health Mrs. Ricker has? It is easy to secure if you take Wine of Cardui according to directions. Wine of Cardui strengthens weak and worn-out women of any age and assists the mother and housewife to bear her exacting duties. Wine of Cardui makes women fit for all the duties of womanhood.

It will relieve the pains of irregularity, cures falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, ovarian troubles, and has been known to remove what physicians considered dangerous tumors. Women who use Wine of Cardui do not suffer at the monthly periods. They do not suffer hysterical attacks, because Wine of Cardui gives them strong nerves freed from the irritation of female suffering.

A $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui purchased from your druggist will keep you free from pain.
